Supplementary Figure 1. A heat-map based on a matrix with patient characteristics and C1-C7 as columns and patients as rows. The clustering of columns and rows are based on the Euclidean distances (root sum-of-squares of difference).